Defendants,

Now comes Carmen Powell, and moves this Honorable Court for a continuance of the hearing currently scheduled for March 3, 2008 in Dept. 11 at 2:30pm.

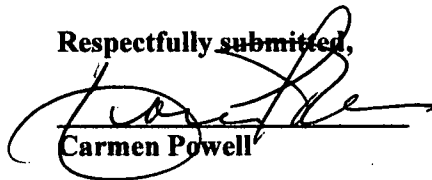

The reason for this request is: I am in Superior Court, Juvenile Division Dept 1 on March 3, 2008 on a dependancy matter and it is clear that I can not be in two courts at the same time. Due to the conflict of the scheduled dependancy matter court dates, I want to preserve my standing with this court. For the first time an order for discovery was made in this dependancy matter on February 4, 2008 to be received by February 8, 2008 from the inception of this case from August 17, 2006, county council also mentioned that additional dates may be needed.

There was an 827 motion before the Juvenile Court in this matter and County Council was granted an 827 motion to disclose the Juvenile records in this case regarding my children, however they are selective in regarding the information to be disclosed, the trial in not finished and there agency immediately filed another petition with the same allegations. County Council's attempt to hood wink this court, by being selective with the information that I have never had the opportunity to see or to receive through discovery and this trial is not over, and I have every intentions to submit supporting case law and argument as to why this case based on the true facts, case law and the merits of this case should move forward.

I respectfully request a 45 day continuance in this matter and to preserve my right to be heard.

Respectfully submitted,

Carmen Powell
